EARLY MORNING NEWS. Two Were Killed.

Constable Harnishfeger went out to Gravanza Village, California, on Sunday to arrest an old man named B. S. Sprague for beating his little girl. Sprague shot Harnishfeger through the head, inflicting a mortal wound, and then opened fire on Deputies McCutchin and Jones, who had Deputies McCutchin and Jones, who had accompanied the constable. The deputies returned to the city and gave the alarm. Several parties then started out to capture Sprague. One party overtook him between South Pasadena and Alhambra. Sprague turned on them and fired shot after shot from his revolver. The pursuers replied with several volleys. Finally H. W. Patton, registrar of the land office, succeeded in heading off the fugitive, and called upon him to surrender. Sprague replied by firing two shots at Patton, both of which missed. Patton then shot Sprague through the abdomen with a rifle, inflicting a fatal wound. Sprague is thought to have been insane.

that a couple of men were unwelcome guests on his Potomac flats improvements, and said that he disliked their presence there. Policeman Henry went over the Long Bridge with the patrol wagon and found Dave Johnson and Charles Roberts, two as bad-looking men as often grace Washington. They were under a shed erected over some of the machinery, and their looks were enough to insure their arrest. Besides this, the engineer said he has missed about $100 worth of the smaller portions of the engines, and the floger of suspicion was pointed at our two frieads. They were in the Police Court within two hours after Colonel Haim sent his telephone massage and went to the works as "yags."

"Several years ago, on a passage home from California, by water, I contracted so severe a cold that for some days I was confined to my state-room, and a physician on board considered my life in danger. Happening to have a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, I used it freely, and my lungs were soon restored to a healthy condition. Since then I have invariably recommended this preparation."—J. B. nothing with Casey's curves, making but one hit in the last eight innings. Hallman's catching was perfect, and the infield of the Phillies gave an excellent exhibition of fine work. Delahanty fumbled a difficult chance but handled the ball quickly and it looked as if the runner was out. All the Phillies were at the grounds yesterday afternoon and had two hours' practice fielding, batting and running bases. They will probably play Jacksonville again on Wednesday. Nothing like it has ever entered Birmingham before, and many people visited it yesterday at the depot. The party was received on its mrival by a delegation from the Warwickshire County Cricket Club and toasted in the club's quarters at the Colonade Hotel. They were driven to the grounds at 2 o'clock in two four-horse English drags, and played a game which was remarkable for Williamson's fielding and fine base running. All-America tied the score in the fourth inning, and when the game was called on account of darkuess at the end of the tenth inning the tie had not been broken, and a majority of the original crowd was still applauding. If your wife is insane, it is your duty to have her put where she can be cured. You take her home, and don't you bring her here again for assaulting you. I am really surprised that a respectable man like you should do as you have. Case dismissed."

GENERAL SPORTING NOTES.

The Philadelphias and Jacksonvilles played their third game yesterday, and both teams showed marked improvement in their play. It was a very interesting game from start to finish, though less than 300 people were in attendance to enjoy it. Casey and Hallman were the battery for the Phillies. By hard hitting the Northern Club succeeded in making two runs during the game. The Jacksonvilles could do nothing with Casey's curves, making but

When John Doran went home last night

A St. Louis correspondent says of the Clevelande: "Sprague, McAleer, Snyder, Stricker, in fact the entire team, with the exception of McKean, are all in tip top shape and able to jump in and open the season at once if necessary. Both of Mc-kean's arms are in a bad condition; one has the tendons strained and the other is stiff and sore from rheumatism; otherwise the brilliant young short stop is in good condi-tion. The team is unanimous in the belief that Cleveland will beat both Indianapolls and Washington out in the race."

The Brooklyns are taking their prelimi-nary work by spinning over the Athletic grounds on tricycles. Manager McGunni-gle believes that this exercise will put them in good condition for base running. Sanders will join the "Phillies" in Flor-ida to-morrow. Nothing has been heard from Decker.
